

21
80

Charles Darwin Esq.^{re} with the Author's best Respects & Compliments

h-103
110

112

118-122

125 128

137

139

146

174

183

188

196

200

202

205

251

~~264~~

273

277

281

285 6

291 2

306

305 0

180

314 } cups - no find 3:15
34^r - 200 } chicks of Norfolk & Cambridge July 8/1900

48 OS can be seen in nest with another when it was open

79 Junco Field May they eggs with nest

87 Thrill warbler in their form

101 + 103 Contact in nest & wiper feeding in nest

110 White Peewee of uniform size

115 3 very young (in the form can vary)

118 Duck ^{nest} by road on the bank (2)

122 - Becom ^{nest} found in marshes (3)

137 Sparrow wren of - Apt. ² pair built on wall with ^{other species as well}

139 Sparrow wren white -

- Mockingbird wren & last feeding

146 Bewick's wren in nest feeding in nest

188 Cedar nest seen in available time

202 Wren between Sparrow & Thrush (4.2)

253 Chickadee of Sparrow & Thrush 264 of Sparrow 273 Cedar 277 Sparrow 285

273 Cedar of Cedar 4 not the subject of this feeding in nest (2)

325 Sparrow, Wren's nest with (2)

326 Chickadee of Sparrow in nest in Marsh (1) (2)

81 Peewee makes first advances to Wren

324 chick of
325 326
309
306
287

Though, perhaps or probably several of our Domestic breeds may have descended from several wild stocks, yet I think others cannot probably have come from them
copying - on account of our absorbing
the other ~~the~~ without systematic selection the difficulty of making them any true Breed.

X
xiv 2. ew

34
48
69-79
83
87
90
97
101

p. 188
good case of Herdlay accident with grub

Fre. thick
Cochin
Spanish
Javan
Bantam

original distinction breeds

Yuse f 142